

Practical arrangements for a funeral following the loss of a little baby

Over 24 weeks gestation (or neonatal death at any gestation when organised by the hospital)

Patient Services

First of all we offer our sincere condolences on the loss of your baby. This leaflet seeks to advise you of the funeral arrangements we will be making with you. Below are some of the questions you may have.

Who arranges the funeral?

The funeral arrangements will be made by the General Office, in conjunction with the Funeral Directors and the Chaplaincy Department.

General Office will write to you confirming the date, time and place of the funeral.

This is normally within one month of your loss. There is no restriction on who you can bring with you, neither are you under any obligation to attend.

New Legislation 2018

The government have passed new legislation to waive the costs of child burials and cremations in England, all cremation fees will be met by a new Children's Funeral Fund'

Funeral directors do also offer a 'free of charge' package which is exactly the same as the hospital funeral package. Families now have the choice of going to their preferred Funeral directors or using the hospital funeral services.

More information is available from either general office or any funeral directors.

Should I have a Burial or Cremation?

It is entirely up to you whether you wish to opt for burial or cremation. Both services start with a short service in the chapel. In the case of a burial this is followed by a short walk to the Teddy Bear Garden for the committal. With a cremation the service ends with the committal in the chapel. You will be given a leaflet to explain in more detail the cremation process.

The prevention of infection is a major priority in all healthcare and everyone has a part to play.

- Please decontaminate your hands frequently for 20 seconds using soap and water or alcohol gel if available
- If you have symptoms of diarrhoea and/or vomiting, cough or other respiratory symptoms, a temperature or any loss of taste or smell please do not visit the hospital or any other care facility and seek advice from 111
- Keep the environment clean and tidy
- Let's work together to keep infections out of our hospitals and care homes.

What do I need to do?

You will need to contact the Bereavement Centre on 01902 695091 to make an appointment to collect the hospital death certificate or certificate of still birth.

You will also be able to register the birth and death with the Registrars in the Bereavement Centre at the same time.

When you register the death you will receive a green form to give to the funeral directors to allow arrangements to be made for cremation or burial.

You will need to give this form to the general office at the hospital if you decide you want the arrangements to be made by them.

Who takes the funeral?

Normally one of the hospital chaplains will take the service. However you are welcome to invite your own minister/faith representative to take the service instead. The hospital would not be able to pay any expenses in respect of this person. Please let the staff in General Office know if you prefer for someone else to take the service. We realise that some people may wish to have a non-religious service and this is available please ask for details.

Where does the funeral take place?

If you have chosen Wolverhampton for your funeral it will normally take place in the East Chapel at Bushbury Crematorium, Underhill Lane, WV10 7JG. There is also an option to bury baby in other cemeteries within Wolverhampton, however, this will only be a graveside service.

Funerals in Stafford will take place at Stafford crematorium and Walsall funerals can be held at Willenhall Lawn cemetery or Streetley crematorium

What happens at the service?

You will be greeted outside the Chapel by the chaplain / minister taking the service. You need to arrive at the chapel at least ten minutes before the stated time of the funeral. When the hearse arrives you will be invited to follow the minister into the chapel. A partner or another member of the family may choose to carry the coffin into the chapel, or the funeral directors will do this for you. Once in the chapel the chaplain will lead you through the service. If you would like a hymn or a piece of music to be played during the service please let the person taking the service know at least 48 hours in advance so that this can be arranged. The service is followed by burial, in a small separately numbered grave.

How can I find out more about the service itself?

The chaplain who is to take the service will contact you beforehand to confirm the date and time of the service and will be more than willing to visit you to talk through any issues concerning the funeral or related issues.

What happens afterwards?

If you have chosen Burial:

The deeds to the grave will be forwarded to you about 3 weeks after the funeral, this will enable you to purchase a memorial stone, should you wish to do so.

If you have chosen Cremation:

Any ashes that may remain would be available to collect the following working day or dealt with as you have previously specified.
